

SATISH CHANDRA MEMORIAL SCHOOL

Class: X

Subject: English

Topic: Dust of Snow

HOTS Question

Q.1. Nature has the power to lift our mood even when we are highly despondent. Comment on the basis of your understanding of the poem 'Dust of Snow'.

Q.2. Small things in life make significant changes in our lives. Elaborate with reference to the poem 'Dust of Snow'.

Q.3. Do you think that judging other people with a prejudiced eye makes us impervious to any goodness in them? Discuss in context of 'crow' and 'hemlock tree' in this poem.

Q4. Positive attitude in life can make the world a better place to live in. Do you agree or disagree with reference to the poem 'Dust of Snow'? Express your views bringing out the inherent values.

Q5. Our attitude towards a situation evokes both negative and positive response. Analyze this with reference to the poem, 'Dust of Snow' to bring out the inherent valuable lessons.

Q6. Our mental condition depends on our surroundings and it can be changed according to it. Explain and prove.

Q7. Poets have great power of imagination. Robert Frost also explains his imagination very well and proves that sometimes the bad symbols change into a boon. Discuss.

Q8. There are times when we feel depressed and hopeless. We think that things will never change. Suddenly, a change comes in our mood when cheerfulness replaces the sense of regret. Justify the above statement in the context of the poem 'Dust of Snow'

Q9. The poet has succeeded in giving valuable information in a light hearted manner. What creates the desired effect? Highlight its importance in present-day life.