Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

This is a story about a little girl called Nina. There were four members in her family. They were Nina's father, mother, little brother and Nina herself.

They all were planning to go to attend her aunt's marriage in Delhi. They were all happy. But Nina was not at all happy. She was looking very sad. Her mother asked her the reason of her sadness but she said nothing. Her mother took her to the market to buy her a new dress, but she said no to everything. Then they returned home. After lunch her mother sat near her and asked the reason of saying no to everything. She said nothing but tears rolled down her cheeks. As her mother repeatedly asked her, she showed a nest in her bookshelf where two little sparrows were there. Nina said, "If we go to Delhi locking the door, how would these baby sparrows be fed by the mama and papa sparrows". There she got an idea from her mother that they would leave the window of the room open for the mama and papa sparrows to come and go freely.

A. Answer the questions that follow:
