4. Is the above passage represent India's 'Unity in Diversity'?

CHAPTER-2- DIVERSITY AND DISCRIMINATION

India is a secular county where people of different religions and faiths have the freedom to practice and follow their religion without any fear of discrimination. This is seen as an important element of our unity that we all Indians live together and respect one other. According to the Indian Constitution equality is a value that we have to keep striving for and not something which will happen automatically. People's struggles and positive actions by the government are necessary to make this a reality for all Indians.

1. Why is India a secular country?
2. How equality is the important part of India according to the constitution of India?
3. How was Indian Freedom Struggle a valuable part of Unity in Diversity?
4. What is role of the Indian people to maintain and carry forward the India's unity?
