CASE STUDY

Read the passage and answer the following questions given below:

Once upon a time, in a bustling school, there was a young boy named Alex. He was always organized and took great care of his school supplies, especially his favourite pencil box. It was a bright blue box with cartoon characters on it. Alex loved using the pencils, erasers and coloured pens inside it.

One sunny morning Alex prepared his backpack for school as usual. However, as he was about to leave, he realized that his precious pencil box was missing. He searched his room, the living room, and even the kitchen but couldn't find it. Alex started to worry and became upset.

At school Alex couldn't concentrate on his lessons. He felt incomplete without his special pencil box. During lunch break, he shared his problem with his friends, Sarah and Mike. They decided to help him find the lost pencil box.

After school, the trio decided to retrace Alex's steps. They went to the classroom, the library and the playground, asking if anyone had seen the pencil box. But no one seemed to know where it was.

Just then Alex was losing hope, they spotted the janitor, Mr. Jenkins, holding a bright blue pencil box. Alex's eyes lit up with joy as he recognized his missing pencil box. Mr. Jenkins had found it in the school garden, and he was about to hand it to the school's lost and found department.

Alex thanked Mr. Jenkins with a big smile and hugged his friends tightly. He learned the importance of seeking help from others and the value of friendship. From that day on, he promised to keep a closer eye on his belongings and to help others if they ever lost something too.
