

One day in a cheerful classroom, a little boy named Tim had a special pencil case that he treasured. It was bright blue with his name written in bold letters. One sunny morning, Tim arrived at school to find that his beloved pencil case had disappeared from his desk. He looked everywhere, under the chairs, inside his backpack, and even asked his friends, but it was nowhere to be found. Tim asked his friends if they saw anything unusual. Tim's friend Sarah saw a colourful butterfly near Tim's desk during recess. The teacher found a stray rubber eraser on the floor near Tim's desk. Tim's pencil case was last seen on his desk before the morning break.

1) What did Sarah see near Tim's desk during recess?

- a) A colorful insect
- b) Tim's missing pencil case
- c) An empty lunchbox
- d) A new set of pencils

2) Why did Tim ask his friends if they saw anything unusual?

- a) Because he wanted to play a game with them
- b) Because he wanted to share his lunch with them
- c) Because he was looking for his missing pencil case
- d) Because he wanted to show off his new pencil case

3) How would you feel if you lost something special like Tim's pencil case?

- a) excited
- b) sad
- c) angry
- d) bored

4) Which of these items was not found near Tim's desk during recess?

- a) Butterfly
- b) Rubber eraser
- c) Juice box
- d) both a and b

5) What should Tim do if he doesn't find his pencil case right away?

- a) Give up and never look for it again
- b) Keep searching and not lose hope
- c) Blame his friends for hiding it
- d) Ask the teacher to buy him a new pencil case